What else can we offer:

- Appointments for individual counseling
- Pre-selection process to find fitting apartments
- Information events to provide skills for self-help
- A network of collaborating partners, local administration offices, institutions and volunteers
- Providing interpreters for official appointments on a case-by-case base
- Personal accompaniment to apartment viewings
- Help with preparing necessary documents

Living in a private apartment is basic to social integration, improving your language skills and hence better chances to find work

Grip that opportunity and get in touch with us right away!
